

General hint: To see all and cheap possibilities use search-engines, depending on your country: megaflieger, opodo, whichbudget, jetcost, momondo, greitai. It's advised to use such search-engines only to get the information, NOT for booking, because you have to book your bicycle too and that can cause problems using the search engines. Book directly at the website of the founded airline! At some airlines simply with a "click", at others by phone. Typical price for a bike is about 30 Euro inside Europe, and ~100-150 USD to South America. To get knowledge which airlines fly to one or another airport it is advisable also to visit websites of corresponding airports.

There are many different possibilities to reach La Paz from Europe but there are no non-stop flights. You have to change the plane or in South America (Lima, Bogota, Santa Cruz de la Sierra etc.) or in USA (Miami, New York, etc.).

The most convenient and cheapest flights are from Spain (Madrid, Barcelona). You can check the following airlines aireuropa.com, iberia.com, latam.com, aa.com, avianca.com, and boa.bo. Flying from other European towns you can find flights operated by ba.com, finnair.com, and klm.com.

If you want to reach us on the route or finish the ride earlier read about Bolivia public transport system here. Check the main roads crossing our route. From remote but popular touristic places, you can find a seat in the jeep, which will bring you to the bigger town.

If you need assistance in buying the plane ticket to La Paz mark the group ticket in the Registration Form, and we contact you telling about the best options.
