General hint. To see all cheap possibilities use search engines like Skyscanner, Opodo, Whichbudget, Jetcost, and others. It's advised to use such search engines only to get the information, NOT for booking, because you have to book your bicycle too and that can cause problems using the search engines. Book directly at the website of the founded airline! At some airlines simply with a "click", at others by phone. To get knowledge of which airlines fly to one or another airport it is advisable also to visit websites of corresponding airports.

When searching for flights try to use the "Multy-City" option. The combined ticket can be cheaper than for separate parts.

The rough info on how to reach one point of the route from another by various means of transport can be found at the site Rome2Rio.
